

Allan Roberts

Mentor and Author

Biography

Allan is on a mission to transform vulnerable students into high achievers so they can reach their true potential. As an inspirational speaker and mentor, Allan wants to support the next generation to succeed. He confesses that his own 75-year life journey could have been much smoother had he had the benefit of a mentor at an earlier age.

Allan shares his tales from the trenches, from his own troubled youth, to a disastrous marriage which left him financially in debt, he became homeless, and eventually lost his sight.

Through developing his mindset, this enabled Allan to overcome these traumatic challenges. He eventually became a speaker, author and mentor in order to fulfil on his mission to make a difference.

He is passionate about charities, especially Mentor Link, and intends to raise £100,000 to Champion Youth For A Better Tomorrow.
